

Christopher Blanchard, an army soldier from Citrus County, Florida, currently stationed in Ft. Eustis, Virginia. His parents Sheila and Tom Densmore reside in Inverness, Florida.

A graduate of Citrus County High School, Christopher enlisted in the Army in September, 1998. After attending basic training at Ft. Jackson in South Carolina, Christopher was assigned to Ft. Eustis for advanced training as an aircraft technician.

Following his training, Christopher was assigned to Ansbach, Germany, where he performed electrical work on army helicopters. As part of a peace-keeping mission in Kosovo, Christopher spent 6 months on the ground helping to keep the fragile peace accords in place.

Christopher was next stationed in Hawaii for 4 years, where he took part in missions to Bosnia and Afghanistan. Currently he is a senior instructor for the helicopter instructor's course at Ft. Eustis, training new recruits in helicopter maintenance and electric work.

Over the course of his service, Christopher has earned many medals and commendations, including five Army Commendation Medals, two Army Achievement Medals, an Army Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Kosovo Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development Ribbon, Overseas Ribbon, two NATO Medals, Aviation Badge, Air Assault Badge, and Driver/Mechanic Badge. In January 2008, Christopher will attend Warrant Officer Candidate School at Ft. Rucker, Alabama. Following the completion of his training, Christopher will be assigned to his next duty station as an Aviation Maintenance Officer.

Madam Speaker, it is soldiers like Christopher Blanchard who volunteer to protect the freedoms that all Americans hold dear to their hearts. While brave men and women like Christopher serve in the name of freedom and liberty, his family, friends, and loved ones should know that this Congress will never forget his sacrifice and commitment.

RECOGNIZING ALEX DIERINGER FOR ACHIEVING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Mr. GRAVES. Madam Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Alex Dieringer of Maryville, MO. Alex is a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 75, and earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Alex has been very active with his troop, participating in many Scout activities. Over the many years Alex has been involved with Scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community.

Madam Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Alex Dieringer for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

HONORING RONALD SHAW, CHAIRMAN OF PILOT PEN CORPORATION OF AMERICA, ON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Ms. DeLAURO. Madam Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to join the many family, friends, colleagues and community leaders who have gathered to pay tribute to one of our most influential and successful business leaders, Ronald Shaw, as he celebrates his retirement from Pilot Pen Corporation of America after more than three decades of dedicated service.

When one thinks of industry leaders, Ron Shaw is a name that comes to mind immediately. If you know Ron, it is not difficult to believe that he began his career as a stand-up comedian—opening for the likes of Rosemary Clooney, Dean Martin, Connie Francis, and even Liberace. Ironically, it was through learning to “sell himself” that he developed his keen business sense. Knowing that the life of a stand-up comic was not conducive to his new found family life, Ron left the stage to, as he says, “get a real job.”

Joining Pilot Pen in 1975, the company has flourished under his leadership. In the three decades during which Ron has been with the company, sales have grown from $1 million annually to nearly $200 million. It has been through his vision and leadership that the company has continued to expand both in size and markets. Look around you and very shortly you will inevitably find one of their many products. From the pens we use every day to your child's Magna Doodle, Pilot Pen products are everywhere. It is no wonder that Ron is one of only six Americans to have served on the Board of Directors on any publicly held Japanese company.

From local companies such as Laticrete International, the Shubert Theater, and the University of New Haven to national organizations like the Anti-Defamation League, Larry King Cardiac Foundation, and the City of Hope National Medical Center, Ron has dedicated countless hours to industry and civic organizations focused on enriching the lives of our citizens. Ron has always wanted to make a difference in the lives of others—especially our young people. Inspiring our youth was the impetus behind the writing and publication of his book, “Pilot Your Life.” Wanting the book to serve as a career guide to college graduates, he hoped that in reading about his own experiences, they could learn from his mistakes and take advantage of some of the opportunities he did not. Ron has always held a strong belief in the American Dream—the opportunity to build your own business and make your own success—his parting advice in his book and a lesson that he certainly imparted to his own children, all of whom are small business owners today.

I have been fortunate to know Ron for many years and have always been grateful for his special friendship. For his many outstanding contributions, both professional and personal, I am pleased to join his wife, Phyllis, his children; Steven and his wife Carrie, Susan and her husband Michael, as well as Alan and his wife Nancy, his five grandchildren; Lauren,

Bryan, Stephanie, Jacob, and Yael; and all of those gathered this evening in extending my sincere thanks and heartfelt congratulations to Ronald Shaw as he celebrates his retirement. My very best wishes for many more years of health and happiness.

IN HONOR AND REMEMBRANCE OF SUE WALTERS

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Sue Walters, loving mother, grandmother, community activist, and dear friend and mentor to many. Her passing marks a great loss for her family and friends, and also for our entire Cleveland community, whom she served with the highest level of commitment, concern, integrity and honor.

Mrs. Walters worked tirelessly in support of the democratic process. Her involvement in several local campaigns, including my own, infused a vital level of energy throughout the process, and inspired everyone around her. “Susie,” as she was affectionately known by friends and co-workers, reflected an exceptional sense of humor, and her consistently sunny outlook naturally drew others to her—elevating the spirits of all of us.

Madam Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Sue Walters, whose boundless love for life served as a source of inspiration and joy for everyone who knew her well. I extend my deepest condolences to her beloved husband, Thomas; her children, Michelle and Thomas; her grandchildren, Jill Marie and Anthony Thomas; and also to her extended family and many friends.

Mrs. Walter's immeasurable heart, sparkling personality and focus on social action has forever touched the lives of countless individuals, young and old, and her unbridled spirit and vital work will soar forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her well, especially her family, friends and the people of Cleveland, Ohio.

HONORING ANGELA MARIE
CERNICH OWENS OF INVERNESS, FLORIDA

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Specialist Angela Marie Cernich Owens, a soldier from Inverness, Florida currently serving in Iraq.

Born in Omaha, Nebraska, Angela moved to Citrus County at a young age. She attended Floral City Elementary and Citrus High, eventually graduating from Withlacoochee Technical School. An acclaimed golfer on her high school team, Angela received many trophies for her prowess on the golf course.

Sworn into the military on September 10, 2001, Angela has seen firsthand the changes in the military since September 11. Originally assigned to basic training in South Carolina, Angela was eventually sent to Ft. Sill, Oklahoma and Ft. Lewis, Washington before her deployment to Iraq in January 2005.

During her first tour in Iraq, Angela earned the Command Team Coin for Excellence for her role in missions outside Mosul. Disguised as a local Iraqi in the full length black dress and head cover, Angela worked side by side with her fellow soldiers to conduct the peace keeping missions so vital to stability in Iraq.

Upon her return from her first tour of duty, Angela was assigned to Ft. Lewis, where she was trained as a sniper. She also met her husband, James Russell Owens, and the two were married in September of 2006. Both Angela and James have since been reassigned to Iraq and are stationed at Camp TQ.

Madam Speaker, it is soldiers like Angela Marie Cernich Owens who volunteer to protect the freedoms that all Americans hold dear to their hearts. While brave men and women like Angela serve in the name of freedom and liberty, her family, friends and loved ones should know that this Congress will never forget her sacrifice and commitment.

SENATE ALL-NIGHTER

HON. JOSEPH R. PITTS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Mr. PITTS. Madam Speaker, I am sure we have all seen the images on the evening news and in this week's papers.

Cots laid out in the Capitol's hallways to provide for an all-night debate on Iraq. Oh, the plight of the modern day United States Senator.

What a decision to make. Sleep on a leather couch in a Capitol hideaway, or bunk up in the LBJ Room on a turned-down rollaway. We appreciate these good Senators' tough sacrifice, but how about our troops in the field?

While Senators are trying to get some shut-eye between rhetorical battles on the Senate floor, our soldiers are getting no sleep while dodging real bullets in combat.

Consider one 22-year-old Marine's comment to a reporter about life in Iraq—"If I get five minutes to close my eyes, I take it."

Another Staff Sgt. said "The 45-minute catnap is worth a million bucks. Getting some is better than none."

Let the debate go forward, but spare our troops who are sleeping in the sand and dirt the indignity of this political theater.

TRIBUTE TO TOM MAYER

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor the life of Boulder County Commissioner Tom Mayer of Louisville, CO, who passed away on June 22, 2007. He was one of our county's most compassionate advocates in civic affairs and will be greatly missed by his loved ones, friends and the community.

Commissioner Tom Mayer was born March 22, 1951. In 1973, overlooking the Hudson River and Catskill Mountains, Tom received his bachelor's degree in physics from Bard College. He later left his native New York and New Jersey to pursue a master's degree in atmospheric sciences from the University of Illinois in 1976. He then spent 26 years as a software engineer at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, CO.

Though the white-bearded Boulder County commissioner savored the complexities of a good wine and a changing weather system, he held little tolerance for bad government and static bureaucracy. In 1992, Commissioner Mayer sought and won a seat on the Louisville City Council and went on to serve 11 years. During Tom's time on City Council he also served as a representative to the Boulder County Consortium of Cities, Boulder County Recycling and Compost Authority, and the U.S. 36 Major Investment Study.

It was Commissioner Mayer's unwavering commitment to health and human services, limiting growth and preservation of open space that drove him to change Boulder County government as a county commissioner. Tom passionately served as a commissioner from 2003 until his passing. His other commitments included: Boulder County Human Services Coordinating Council, Metro Area County Commissioners, Colorado Counties Inc., Colorado Child Care Assistance Program, State of Colorado Child Welfare Allocation Committee and the National Association of Counties Health and Human Service Committee.

We will miss Commissioner Mayer's style of leadership defined by his strong social conscience and overall sense of social justice. With a big heart and never-ending compassion he tirelessly fought for the underprivileged. Tom's intellect and generosity made him an admirable servant working for the public good with the right motivation. Tom helped make Boulder County a better place for all of us.

If the measure of a life well-lived is the impact that a person has on others, then Tom's impact is broad and deep. We all owe him a debt of gratitude and respect, and I am particularly indebted to him for his early support of my work in public service. I ask my colleagues to join me in celebrating and remembering his life while expressing our deepest sympathies to his family for their loss.

FREE THE ISRAELI SOLDIERS

SPEECH OF

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 12, 2007

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with great concern to recognize the one year anniversary of the capture of three Israeli soldiers. Over one year ago, Hezbollah terrorists infiltrated into Israeli territory and attacked two IDF armored jeeps patrolling the border with Lebanon, killing three soldiers and kidnapping two: Eldad Regev, 26, of Kiryat Motzkin and Ehud (Udi) Goldwasser, 31, of Nahariya. Weeks earlier, on June 25, Gilad Shalit, 20, of Hila, was abducted by Hamas in the Gaza strip.

As an original cosponsor of House Resolution 107, a resolution which calls for the immediate and unconditional release of these Israeli soldiers held captive by Hamas and Hezbollah, I was extremely pleased that it passed the House unanimously on March 3th of March. This critical piece of legislation demanded that Hamas release Israeli soldier Gilad Shalit, and required Hezbollah accept the mandate of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1701 to release Israeli soldiers Ehud Goldwasser and Eldad Regev.

My efforts to assist in the release of these soldiers began in July 2006 when I wrote to American Red Cross' Interim President Jack McGuire urging the American Red Cross to apply pressure to the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) to assess the well-being of these three Israeli soldiers. In that letter, I admonished Hezbollah and Hamas for continuously failing to accede to basic standards of humanitarian conduct and denying competent medical personnel and representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross access to the Israeli captives.

Hezbollah's and Hamas' blatant disregard for international law and the malicious uncertainty they have unleashed on the captured soldiers' families is simply heartless. This obvious disrespect for humanitarian law warrants an international response. Having met with Karnit Goldwasser, the wife of kidnapped Israeli soldier Ehud Goldwasser, I am even more committed to advocate for the plights of these brave soldiers.

I will continue to intensely oppose terrorist activities that compromise human life to advance a drastic agenda. These illegitimate actions only solidify the United States' commitment to support Israel as the only true democracy in the Middle East and achieving peace in the region.

Over the past few years, we have watched violence in Israel and the Palestinian territories spiral out of control. Clearly it is time for the United States to become more actively engaged in the region. While we continue to consume ourselves with our own war against terrorism, we cannot forget that Israel has been waging its own war against terrorism, as well as its own fight for democracy, for more than 55 years. Today, I stand with my colleagues in sending a message to the people of Israel: The support Israel enjoys from the United States is stronger today than it has ever been.

I will continue to lend my vigorous support and unwavering commitment to the welfare and survival of the State of Israel as a Jewish and democratic state with secure borders.

We cannot remain silent on this grave issue: we owe it to these brave soldiers, their families, and to ourselves. Silence would only tell the rest of the world that these actions have become acceptable. I urge my colleagues to continue to unequivocally condemn these acts and pray for the return of these brave soldiers and peace in the region.

HONORING WEEKI WACHEE SPRINGS ATTRACTION ON ITS 60TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. GINNY BROWN-WAITE

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 19, 2007

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize one of Florida's most distinguished natural and cultural treasures. Weeki Wachee Springs will be
